Letter No. J.C.823 dated the 21st March 1918 from the District Magistrate of Bangalore to the Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore.

In forwarding herewith an extract from the notes of inspection dated 23-11-1917 made by the Chief Judge of the Chief Court of Mysore making certain observations re Judicial Records of the Record Room of this Court, I have the honor to state that the records in arrears have to be sorted into A and B files as per recent Rule of Practice No.86 dated 12-4-1913 and that every endeavour is being made by a single record keeper to show progress in this direction.

2. But on my inspection of the state of these records on 14-3-1918, I am of opinion that it is hardly possible for a single hand in addition to his current work to cope with the clearing of arrears which have considerably accumulated. As rightly observed by the Chief Judge, it seems to me also that some hands should be employed temporarily for some time to clear out the arrears.

3. I, therefore, beg to suggest the appointment of 2 clerks, temporarily, for a period of two years on a pay of Rs 25 and 20 per month and to request that you will be so good as to recommend the same to Government with your support for favour of early sanction.
